Rights in relation to CRBs

11. Individuals have certain rights in respect of CRB's and the information a CRB holds about the individual and those rights include:

- Opting out of direct marketing pre-screenings. A CRB may use an individual's credit information to assist a credit provider to market to that individual by pre-screening the individual for direct marketing by the credit provider. This process is known as a "pre-screening". If an individual does not want a CRB (including the CRB listed above) to use that individual's information for the purpose of pre-screening, the individual has the right under the Act to contact the CRB to request that they exclude the individual from such processes.
- If an individual is a victim of fraud (including identity-related fraud). An individual is entitled under the Act to request that a CRB not use or disclose credit reporting information they hold about the individual in circumstances where the individual reasonably believes that they have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud, including identity-related fraud. The period while this applies is called a "ban period". An individual can make such a request to any CRB, including those listed above.

Direct Marketing

11. As part of Motopool's and the Motorama Group's functions and business activities and to promote the services we can provide to our customers, including in respect

In any direct marketing communication we remind recipients of their right to opt out of receiving direct marketing communications. Moreover, as a general rule, a credit provider such as Motopool or a company within the Motorama Group is not permitted to disclose to others credit information about individuals for the purposes of direct marketing.

However, this only applies where it is not impracticable for Motopool or a company within the Motorama Group to deal with individuals acting anonymously or under a pseudonym. For example, individuals making general enquiries of Motopool or a company within the Motorama Group may do so anonymously or under a pseudonym. However, if the dealing with Motopool or a company within the Motorama Group is for Motopool or a company within the Motorama Group to supply goods and services and/or to enter into contractual relations (such as a commercial credit account) with a customer that is the individual or is associated with the individual or in Motopool's or a company with the Motorama Group capacity as an agent for other credit providers, then it is impractical for such individuals to deal with Motopool or a company within the Motorama Group on an anonymous basis or under a pseudonym.

27. It may be necessary (and it may be required by the Act), in order to deal with a complaint, to consult with a credit reporting body or another credit provider. Further, if, while a complaint remains unresolved, we are disclosing information subject to the complaint to a third party, we may be required to advise the third party about the complaint.

28. If we find a complaint is justified we will resolve it and do what is required to rectify any breach. Motopool and the Motorama Group are committed to fulfilling its obligations as an APP entity and a credit provider under the Act.
